Mrs. Gladys J. Navratil Passes Away

The district was saddened and shocked on Sunday when news spread of the passing in the Lethbridge Hospital of Mrs. Gladys J. Navratil death being caused by a hemorrhage following childbirth. It was not until after the baby was born that any trouble developed and before very much could be done, the end had come. Deceased had been troubled with a weak heart for years, and was never overly strong, but no alarm was felt as she had been feeling pretty well all the time.

Funeral services were held in the Second Ward on Wednesday at 2 p.m. with Bishop L.L. Palmer in charge. Mrs. Emma Dahl of the choir and members of both ward choirs assisting in the singing. There was a large crowd of friends present to show their respect to the family and the rostrum and casket was covered with a profusion of flowers as a token of esteem in which deceased was held.

The opening song was "Sweet Hour of Prayer" and invocation was pronounced by O. H. Shaw, the second song being "Sometimes Somewhere."

Elder Lyman Jacobs, the first speaker mentioned the congenial and friendly spirit of deceased who had been in his home frequently, and mentioned her dependability and her desire to be of service. He paid tribute also to the mother and other members of the Jaque family and her husband and felt highly honored to be asked to speak at the service. He spoke of the promises of the resurrection and eternal life and offered hope and consolation to the bereaved family and especially the young husband.

Mrs. Clarence Layton and her brother Fred Pickett went to Raymond on Saturday to see the improvements made on the family plot in the Raymond cemetery, and returned on Sunday night.—Taber Times.

C. P. R. OFFERS IRRIGATION SYSTEM

The Canadian Pacific Railway has offered to turn over its 100,000 acre irrigation system in the Lethbridge area and full right for water distribution to a properly organized irrigation district. This announcement was made by Phil Baker, chairman of the South Alberta Water Conservation Council. He said the offer involved irrigation works and water rights on land in the Coldlake, White School, Stirling, Raymond and Magrath areas. The railway company first started this irrigation business in Lethbridge about fifty years ago.

Elder James S. Anderson spoke briefly on the reality of the resurrection and the purpose of life and death and urged his listeners to live such a life that they were ready at any time for their promotion from mortality to the spirit world, then, said the speaker, we would have no regrets.

Reece Gibb sang a vocal solo "Oh My Father," and Mrs. Louis Brandley spoke briefly of her long and pleasant acquaintance with the family of Mrs. Juque (the Clark family) and of her love and respect for Gladys as a girl and also as a wife. She offered hope and consolation to the sorrowing relatives in their sorrow.

Bishop Labrecque spoke briefly and expressed his thanks for the acquaintance with deceased and the willingness of all of them to serve where over asked. On behalf of the husband and family of deceased he thanked all for their assistance during the illness and death of Gladys.

The closing song was "We Lay Thee Softly Down to Sleep" and the benediction was pronounced by Elder Parley Meldrum.

A large cortege followed the remains to the local cemetery where interment was made, the grave being officiated by Elder J.W. Evans. Christensen Bros. were in charge.

Political Happenings

After an executive meeting here Saturday night with Hon. S. E. Low, Single Tax, i.e. that the land and it was definitely announced that he would be the Social Credit standard bearer in the forthcoming Provincial election. After Mr. Low's acceptance of the National leadership of the Social Credit party there was no definite statement respecting his stand in the Provincial field until the meeting Saturday night. That ended numerous rumors and speculations of this important point.

The early part of the week the Election Proclamations were printed and on Tuesday and Wednesday the Returning Officer Miss E. Hancock was busy covering the district setting these notices posted and the D.R.O.'s instructed in their official duties.

Enumerators are busy in all parts getting the lists of eligible voters ready for the voting, and these men have a particular job to do. Locally Harold Stevens is our enumerator; J. D. Brown has South Raymond and J. Perry Barton is enumerator for Stirling district.

Last Saturday evening in the Opera House the C.C.F. party held a meeting at which W.W. Scott of Lethbridge was the main speaker, outlining the plans of the C.C.F. platform. In the absence of any local organization, C. E. Allred acted as Chairman of the meeting and introduced the speaker. A fair attendance of interested listeners were present.

Monday evening the Single Tax champion, were at the Town Hall and an interested audience listened to W. M. Madge, Single Tax candidate in this constituency, and Harold McRae, both of Milk River and champion of the Henry George plan of Single Tax, i.e. that the land and primary industries should bear all the tax, were speakers. A question period followed and a number of queries were put to the speakers.

Tuesday evening a Social Credit meeting was held in the interests of Solon E. Low, local candidate, and John H. Blackmore, M.P. was the main speaker. He referred to some of his experiences in Eastern Canada and the interest that was manifested in the theory of Social Credit and then urged the meeting to the support of Social Credit as the means to a new day for humanity without curtailing the free agency of individuals, or discouraging private enterprise, without regimentation or socialization, if Social Credit is permitted to work it will solve the problems of today and the demands of the future. He praised the ability of the Hon. Solon E. Low and the work he had already done, and said he was a man who demanded a hearing where ever he went, and he concluded by urging his listeners to be sure and mark their ballots for the Social Credit candidate.

Tonight another Social Credit meeting will be held and Hon. Solon Low our candidate for the election on August 5th, will be the main speaker.

This afternoon the Independent nominating convention is being held at Warner, and it is expected that James H. Walker, present representative for the Constituency and Independent Party Leader will be the only name presented to the convention. This, of course is only supposition as there may be others in the running.

The disturbance in the C.C.F. meeting in Lethbridge Tuesday night when J. C. Landeryou, S.C. Candidate for Lethbridge was evicted from the hall after he had shouted flar twice during M. J. Caldwell's speech had national repercussions when it was brought up on the floor of the Commons at Ottawa Wednesday. The dispute arose over certain statements Norman Jaques was reported to have made in the Commons which Mr. Landeryou denied had ever been made and Mr. Jaques himself "said Wednesday never had been made by him. Flats flew and Landeryou was bleeding at the mouth after police and ushers had succeeded in getting him out of the main part of the Arena.

Hybrid Corn

According to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, the percentage of total corn acreage in the United States devoted to hybrid corn increased from 0.1 in 1933 to 51.6 in 1943. In the North Central states, where about 70 per cent of the corn crop is produced, the acreage of hybrid corn increased from 0.2 per cent in 1933 to 78.3 per cent in 1943.

Obviously, therefore, the farmers like hybrid corn, and the chief reason is that it yields about 20 per cent more than open pollinated varieties. Let us see what this has meant to food production and to the farmers in the North Central states. In 1942, the production was about 2.4 billion bushels. Since 72.9 per cent of the acreage was occupied by hybrid corn, at least 1.76 billion bushels were hybrid. If we accept the estimated superiority of hybrid corn, namely, 20 per cent, then one-fifth of 1.76 billion bushels, or 352 million bushels produced in 1942 in the North Central states can be credited to the corn breeder. This contribution to war food production, not to mention material benefits to farmers, is nothing less than astounding. It will interest our readers to know that Dr. H. K. Hayes, University of Minnesota, who was chiefly responsible for the hybrid wheat, has played a prominent part in the hybrid corn breeding work.

Agricultural scientists cannot "make bricks without straw." If we are wise we shall see that agricultural research is expanded immediately after the war, and that many scales are adjusted so as to attract the best men available.

Victoria Park was the scene of a very successful Lions Ladies night party at which approximately 65 were present.

2 Softball games were played. One for the Ladies and the other for the men, after which a Camp Fire was built and hot dogs, marshmallows, and pop were the order of the day.

After every one had partaken of this to their entire satisfaction another Log was thrown on the fire and all joined in community singing.

Great credit should be given to Pres. Mutt Ralph, Jack Kenny, Herb Wilde, Poly Hawkins and Joe Strong for arranging one of the best nights the club has had.

The weather was ideal and the members and friends in good spirits.

The Lions gave the Ladies the Lions Roar.

"God Save the King" was sung after which all retired to their homes feeling that it was good to be a member of the Raymond Lions Club.

The next meeting will be held in the Opera House on the 1st Monday in August.

BLAST CAUSES 375 OR MORE DEATHS

When an ammunition ship blew up while taking on explosives at Port Chicago, 35 miles from San Francisco on an arm of the bay, the blast was felt for a radius of 50 miles in all directions, and property damage was estimated at five million dollars or more. There were no civilians on board and the exact number of dead in the armed services has not yet been determined.

The force of the explosion wrecked the town of Port Chicago, a mile away, and a 360 pound piece of steel from the wrecked vessel was blown into the town's streets. Ambulances, military trucks and even private cars were pressed into service to rush the injured to nearby hospitals and cots and blood plasma were rushed to the scene and medical aid brought from the Navy Yard at Mare Island. The explosion was described by officials as one of the worst in the history of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray Kirkham and children of Edmonton arrived in Raymond Saturday evening to spend part of their summer vacation with their parents. It was quite a Kirkham reunion with Reed, Gray and Verland all home together to visit with their folks.

COULD WE HAVE A PLAY GROUND?

How nice it would be if we could unite our energies, the Town Council the Board of Trade, our two Service Clubs and the youth organization of all our Churches in fixing up and equipping a Children's Playground. If we had swings, slides, fountains and so on, where the children could go for the afternoons and play under supervision and be taught to be good sports and to share with others.

The question of supervision has been solved by the Dominion Physical-Fitness Committee. Anyone who will donate their time can obtain a week's schooling in Calgary free of charge except for transportation, and can there be taught the latest games, and methods of child supervision. Wages for a supervisor for a couple of months in the summer would not be very heavy were they divided between several contributing agencies. We have a wonderful location on Victoria Park where there is plenty of room & where at one time we did have a few pieces of equipment.

Aside from the fact of the children having nothing to do and all day in which to do it, there is the opportunity which we are losing of teaching them to play collectively, to share with each other, and to recognize each other's privileges. Selfishness, the inability to share each other's viewpoints and to work and play with others is not born in a night. It develops through the years and grows stronger if it is not checked. We are living in a hustle bustle world where parents have little time to devote to the training of their children. In many cases what is not taught in school or in the Sunday School and Primary classes simply is not taught, and the children either do not get it, or they get it the hard way. Supervised play would overcome a great deal of this, and too, it would have the children in an environment where high ideals would predominate. This would be worth a great deal.

Even if a small charge was made per child, which should not be, still it would be a good investment in the future of the boy or girl. Such a project should never be operated for profit, and it would add much to the interest we had in it individually if everyone of us had a hand in the actual work connected with it. Equipment need not be expensive to be serviceable. To see the great time the children have on the playground in Waterton is all the evidence we need of its value, and it would be a good project for the coming fall and winter to have a playground built and equipped for next summer.

SHUR-GAIN News OF THE WEEK

COMPARE... the cost of raising hogs on GRAIN ALONE — against the cost and high profit of raising hogs on a smaller amount of grain, PLUS the proven SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE:

It takes 1100 pounds of grain to raise one hog on GRAIN ALONE... cost, about $13.75. To this you must add the cost of maintaining the sow, about $3.50 per weaned pig. A total of $17.25.

BUT... feeding the SHUR-GAIN WAY — you need only 700 pounds of grain, plus 50 pounds of SHUR-GAIN HOG CONCENTRATE. The total feed cost, including the cost of maintaining the sow is only $14.05.

The difference between feed cost and selling price when hogs are fed on grain alone, is about $3.75 per hog. BUT THE SHUR-GAIN WAY makes the difference $12.00 per hog — an EXTRA profit of $3.25!
